BACK TO THE ROOTS OF THE SAFARI TRADITION

Mobile safaris, and more specifically camping mobile safaris, are undoubtedly the most traditional way of exploring Southern Africa. Traveling in a small group, on a 4x4, moving camps as you proceed across remote regions, sleeping under an oasis canvas tent in wild areas left entirely untouched. Our staff, unprecedentedly welcoming people who call these mind-blowing destinations "home", will take you by the hand, sharing their knowledge and their culture. What better way to learn in such a manner that you almost feel that you've touched the heart of Africa.
